

Springtime in Ohio

Song for Peter

Lyrics and Music by Madeleine Hart

Springtime in Ohio in a city by the lake
Watching life unfolding 'til he feels his heart will break
From all the beauty that life can behold
The morning light, the dew upon the rose

Springtime in Ohio watch it grow

He tried to understand how any man could fight his fellow man
Why are children born without a hope to carry on?
Tell me where is the just and loving being to guide us?

Listen to the silence of a million swirling stars
Whispering the secret of a place so near, so far
Winter shrouds the springtime 'neath her snow
Everything in time will surely grow

Springtime in Ohio watch it grow
Springtime in Peter's garden, watch it grow